A Noteworthy Talk

W. Bro Alan Stirk has been a proud member of the nationally and internationally renowned Huddersfield Choral Society for 17 years. St Wilfrid Lodge were pleased to hear Alan give the latest of this year's talks in which he gave a unique insight into life as a choristor and the illustrious history of the Choir since its founding in 1836. With the choir Alan has performed around the world in front of many illustrious audiences, including the Queen herself, and under the direction of numerous world class conductors. He also brought along an extensive collection of memorabilia to complement his talk which certainly hit the right notes!
